FATHER NOTES: George Washington Hill-19

Census (1910): Note: did not fight in Civil War, as per census

General: "your grandfather lived on a small farm within sight of the old Clark Hill homestead Knox County, Indiana, all his life except last year when he moved to Bruceville so he could have better care. He was a hard worker but enjoyed visiting and telling takes. Was religious by streaks...raised hogs...we were always hard up could hardly make ends meet on the old farm, which contained about 50 acres. We rented lots of places, had lots of bad luck with hog cholera killing his hogs, etc. He made a trip about 1900 to Colorado Springs to visit his son Arthur. About 1920 he came with mother to Huntington to visit us by me sending money for the trip. He died about 1924 do not know the cause. Was about 75 years old."
